DOCTRINAL AND MORALITY DECLARATION

The following pages in summary delineate GGM's statement of faith. In the right-hand column, please respond to each section in regard to your agreement or concerns. A complete copy of our Statement of Faith can be found at <http://ggmcedarville.org> under "Statement of Faith."

Section 1: Essentials of Faith: The following points of our doctrinal statement represent those truths believers through the ages have considered essential for orthodox Christian faith as given in the Scriptures.

THE SCRIPTURES

The Bible is actually God's Word given to His people. Every concept and every word were recorded exactly as God intended because His Holy Spirit worked through the men who wrote the original books. Because these words are ultimately God's, they are absolutely truthful, accurate, and without error. (2 Tim. 3:16-17; 2 Peter 1:19-21; Matt. 24:35.)

THE TRUE GOD

There is only one living and true God, without limits, separate from sin and His creation, sovereign, everywhere-present, all-powerful, all-knowing, and eternal. We believe that God is the loving Creator and Sustainer of all that exists both seen and unseen. God exists as the Trinity in three persons yet one God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. While each person is fully and equally God in every way, each has unique functions to fulfill. (Exodus 20:2-3; 1 Cor. 8:6; Matt. 3:16-17).

THE SON OF GOD

We believe in the absolute deity of Jesus; that is, He is and always was fully God. He has existed as an equal person with the Father and the Spirit throughout eternity. He took on humanity and a body through miraculous conception by the Holy Spirit in Mary, who was a virgin. During His earthly life and even now, He is both fully God and fully human. It is the unique role of Jesus to reveal the other members of the Godhead and to provide salvation for the world through His death and resurrection. After His resurrection, Jesus returned to heaven to be our advocate in the Father's presence and to prepare a heavenly home for His people whom He will gather together to be with Him when He returns at the end of this age. (John 1:1-2, 18; 1 John 5:20; Matt. 1:20; Luke 1:26-38; Heb. 1:1-2; John 14:1-7; 1 John 2:1).

THE HOLY SPIRIT

We believe in the absolute deity of the Holy Spirit equal with the Father and the Son and yet enjoying a unique role. With regard to all people, including the lost, He convicts of sin, teaches the perfect way God desires man to live, and warns of the judgment for failing to do so. With regard to believers, He calls out a community of people to demonstrate to the world the power of the good news of Jesus. He lives inside all who believe in Jesus. He teaches, comforts, and empowers, giving each follower diverse gifts, fostering unity, interdependence, productivity, Christ-like character, and love among Christians (2 Cor. 13:14; John 14:16-17; Rom. 8:14-17).

THE NATURE AND FALL OF MAN

Men and women are created in and reflect God's image: we have the ability to think, to choose, and to feel. The abilities to reason, strategize, plan, appreciate beauty, "create" in terms of literature, music, and art, and to experience joy and heartache are all traceable to God's image stamped on each human being. Because God is a trinity, we are inherently designed for relationships both toward man and God. -continued-Adam and Eve, who were created with the freedom to choose, were tempted by Satan and voluntarily chose to rebel against God. Adam's sin plunged them and their descendants into condemnation and death. Now all their offspring are sinful from the very beginning of life and become practical sinners with the first expression of personal choice and so are without excuse before God. Adam's sin mars the image of God in man so that our reasoning, choices, and feelings are colored by sin. (Gen. 1:26-27; 3:1-26; Psalm 51; Rom. 5:10-19; Col. 1:28, 29; 3:10).

SALVATION

Our relationship with God was ruined by Adam's choice, and the restoration of our relationship can only be accomplished through the reconciling work of Jesus, the sinless, perfect human being (who was also God) who took the punishment that was due us for our sin when He suffered and died voluntarily on the cross. The restored relationship with God is freely given on the grounds of grace alone to all who put their trust in Him. Belief in Jesus means that having acknowledged our sinfulness and rebellion against God, we call upon the Lord Jesus to forgive us, and we entrust our lives to His direction and care. We trust that Jesus' death is alone sufficient to pay the penalty for our sin and to restore our relationship with God and that Jesus provides the example and teaching to follow in our renewed relationship (Rom. 3:21-31; 10:9-13; John 3:1-7; I Cor. 15:17; Titus 3:5-7).

THE CHURCH

We believe that the true church is composed of all those who, through saving faith in Jesus Christ, are united together in the body of Christ, of which He is the Head. Each local church is a visible extension of the body of Christ in a given place. A local church is composed of believers who are bound together in common faith and obedience to Jesus, who teach the Word of God, and who observe the ordinances of Christ. (Acts 2:41-42; Eph. 1:22-23; 3; 4:1-16; 1 Tim. 3; Col. 1:18)

Section 2: Historic Distinctives: Within Christian history, divergent views on doctrinal issues have emerged even among true Christian believers. This agency, recognizing its responsibility to teach the whole counsel of God, affirms the following doctrines as accurate expressions of biblical truth. Appointees under GGM are expected to be in substantive agreement with these positions. Where there are differences, these will be examined by GGM.

SANCTIFICATION

We believe that all who believe in the Lord Jesus Christ are set apart by God as His own unique people. This act, called sanctification, is also a process that continues throughout the earthly life of the believer. We are given a new set of desires, motivations, and empowerment by the Holy Spirit, and as inheritors of eternal life, we are eternally secure in Christ. Each believer will inevitably change as he or she conforms to the character of Jesus throughout our lives. (John 10:27-30; Rom. 8:28-39; 1 John 3:1-10; 2 Cor. 6:14-18)

ORDINANCES OF THE CHURCH

We believe that there are two church ordinances, or observances, that were given by the Lord Jesus to the church: baptism and the Lord's Supper. Baptism is the immersion of a believer in water and serves as a testimony of identification with Christ's death and resurrection. The Lord's Supper is a symbolic meal instituted by the Lord Himself as a frequent reminder of His death, (1 Cor. 11:23-30; Luke 22:14-20; Acts 2:41; 8:35-39).

GOD'S DIRECT CREATION

God created the heavens and the earth, including all life by direct act and not by the process of evolution. He completed His work in six literal consecutive days and rested on the seventh. God's creatorship means that He owns the earth and all its inhabitants. As stewards of both our lives and the earth, we value life and are accountable to Him for the way we invest our lives and treat His creation (Genesis 1:1-2:4; Col. 1:16-17; John 1:3)

SATAN Satan, also called "the Devil," is a distinct person who was created without sin, but subsequently rebelled against the Creator. He currently engages in conflict against God and His work and is the ruling power of this age. However, Satan, as a created being, is limited to actions permitted by God. Satan will be defeated by God and is destined for eternal judgment in the lake of fire (Job 1:10-12; 2:5-7; Matt. 4:1-3; 2 Cor. 4:4; Eph. 6:10-18; Rev. 20:10).
THE GIFTS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT Spiritual gifts are empowerments for service to the body of Christ given when the Holy Spirit enters the life of the believer at conversion. Miraculous signs and gifts were given during the early days of the Church to authenticate the apostles as Jesus' representatives but were not intended to be a pattern for the present day (Rom. 12:3-8; 1 Cor. 12-14; Eph. 4:11-12; 1 Pet. 4:10-11).
FUTURE THINGS The Bible clearly teaches that the future victory of God's kingdom is assured. Jesus has promised to return for His people in triumph at the end of history. Following the resurrections of the saved and unsaved, God will judge all those who are not His children, and because their sin condemns them, He will sentence them to a never-ending, conscious punishment in the lake of fire. Those who are God's children have the promise of a never-ending life in His presence in what is called "heaven" and "the new heavens and the new earth." We believe in the bodily and personal return of Jesus Christ for the Church in an event called the rapture before a seven-year tribulation period. At the close of this period He will establish a literal reign upon the earth for 1,000 years in fulfillment of prophecy (1 Thes. 4:13-18; Matt. 25:31-36; Rev. 19-20).
Section 3: Moral and Societal Concerns: The agency recognizes its responsibility to speak to its generation concerning the great moral and social questions of the day, applying biblical truth to the question at hand.
SANCTITY OF LIFE God is the creator of all life. From the moment of conception, He recognizes each unique individual in His sight. Thus the purposeful taking of the life of that unborn individual is a sin both against the God Who grants life and has created mankind in His image and against that unborn person. Once born, a person's life is still a sacred gift, and any attempt by oneself or others to end prematurely that life for reasons other than capital punishment is also a violation of both the Giver and possessor of that life (Jer. 1:5; Ps. 51:5; Luke 1:39-44; Ps. 139; Gen. 1:26; Gen. 9:6).

SEXUAL RELATIONSHIPS

God created mankind male and female and in so doing established the normal pattern of a man and a woman together in the relationship we call marriage. Sexual union is one of God's specific blessings to be enjoyed within marriage: for manifesting the oneness of the husband and wife, for the mutual joy of both partners, and for the procreation of children. A married couple forms the foundation of the biblical family to which the blessing of children may be added, but which is in no way less a family if God does not grant that gift. Attempts to include any other sexual relationship whether heterosexual or homosexual within the scope of biblically acceptable behavior is a violation of Scripture. We hold that all sexual activity outside the union of husband and wife within marriage violates God's Word and is outside of God's purposes for sex. (Gen. 1, 2; Eph. 5:22-23; Rom. 1:18-32).
